Members of the media are invited to attend the official opening of Montreal Snapshots, Streetcars from 1904 to 1932, at Exporail, the Canadian Railway Museum.

Montreal Snapshots,
Streetcars from 1904 to 1932
Wednesday, July 5, 2006 at 6:00 p.m.
110 St-Pierre Street, Saint-Constant

Exporail is an initiative of the Canadian Railroad Historical Association whose collection includes over 250,000 unique artifacts from the history of Canadian railway technology since 1836.

The collection of photographs, Montreal Snapshots, is a fascinating historical journey through the streets of Montreal that will allow you to discover how Montreal's architecture, fashion and public transportation has changed over the decades.

For more information, to confirm your attendance, or to make special arrangements to see the exhibit, please contact Heather Bisset or Chris Palin at 514-426-7137.
